The games were very successful. The points were closely tied in most games, some reaching to 11 all. Every team tried their hardest but there had to be a winner in the end.

Interview with a Coach from Stanley Matthew's Academy:

So, what's your role in this sport at your school?

"I am a teacher, I teach volleyball in lessons."

What competitions have they took part in before?

They took part in level 2 city competition and came 2nd. The team have gone far even though they are only a small group.

We also spoke to a teacher from St Thomas Moore he said that they teach volleyball in lessons but they don't do enough volleyball but they did take part in the city competition. He played volleyball as a child and he thinks that volleyball is becoming a lot more popular because sports halls in modern schools have higher roofs making it is easier to teach and play due to the space needed to play the sport.
